Deadline Approaches

Area farmers are reminded that the deadline is June 30 for certifying that they have complied with requirements for the 1973 farm programs to become eligible for program payments to be made after July 1.

The certification procedure is simple, according to James R. Ford, Jr., Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) county committee chairman. It involves a trip to the ASCS county office, where the producer signs a declaration that states exactly the acreage he has in program crops, the acreage he has set aside, if any, and affirms that he has complied with all program regulations and will continue to do so.

The Chairman urged farmers to certify compliance as soon as possible, "It is to everyone's advantage for a farmer to certify just as soon as he's sure the he meets all the requirements," he added. The county ASCS office can begin processing data for payment to a producer as soon as he certifies compliance.

Mr. Ford said the ASCS county office is anxious to help farmers avoid errors in certifying and welcomes calls from those who have questions about the procedure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Jr., Becky and Joe spent Sunday touring the Blue Ridge Mountains. Mrs. Vinia Kress spent Thursday in their home.

Those visiting the P.E.Gunters on Sunday other than family were: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lester, Glenn Jr. and Wade, Tina Rector, Kenny and Tina Lester, Charlie Garrett, Nat Ferguson, Buddy Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Martin, Tammy and Donald and Walter Bruce.
